

Hinckley and District Museum Talks 2022

| | SPEAKER | TITLE |
|----------------------------|-----------------|--|
| March 17th | Hugh Beavin | Hinckley`s Medical Men. |
| April 28th | Nick Marshall | Bustles and Bloomers: fashion in the late Victorian age (1870 – 1901). |
| May 19th | Eddie Smallwood | The role of the barber surgeon in the Wars of the Roses. |
| June 16 th | Stephen Marquis | Luddism and the Leicestershire framework knitters. |
| September 15 th | Roger Bisgrove | Trouble and strife, the challenge of getting a wife. |
| October 20 th | Paul Seaton | Letters from the Workhouse. |
| November 17th | Denis Kenyon | The Leicester City, County and Rutland At Risk War Memorials Project. |

VENUE: Hinckley Great Meeting Chapel, Baines Lane.

TIME: 7.30pm.

COST: Free with a 2022 Friends of Hinckley & District Museum membership card.

Visitors are welcome - £5 per talk at the door.