

Hinckley and District Museum Talks Programme 2023

	SPEAKER	TITLE
March 16th	Hugh Beavin	Chapel, Congregation and Community: 300 years of personalities at the Hinckley Great Meeting Chapel.
April 20th	Nick Marshall	Flappers and Baggies - fashion in the Jazz Age (1920-1930).
May 18th	Eddie Smallwood	The Romans – their life at Mancetter and Boudicca`s last battle.
June 15 th	Dennis Perkins	A Burbage Boyhood.
September 21 st	Paul Griffiths	Hinckley's First Councillors - the Urban District Council 1894-1914.
October 19 th	Robin Jenkins	The Leicester City, County and Rutland At Risk War Memorials Project.
November 16th	Eddie Smallwood	Christmas through the Ages.

These talks will take place in the Hinckley Great Meeting Chapel, Baines Lane, and commence at 7.30pm. The venue is disabled friendly, and there is free car parking adjacent to the museum in Lower Bond Street and in Druid Street.

Admission is free with a 2023 Friends of Hinckley & District Museum membership card. Visitors are welcome - admission £5 per event at the door.

Email hinckleymuseum@hotmail.co.uk for more information.

Hinckley and District Museum - Registered Charity no. 1015922.